Sad Café

Discography

(This is not a typical discography. It does not relate to any one country's releases for the band but where there has been a UK copy, it favours that. It is primarily a listener's discography, rather than a collector's discography. It will tell you where to get all the releases, in the most modern formats.)

Olé

Originally Released: 1981 UK: Polydor Deluxe
POLD 5045

Track Listing: Love's Enough; Bitter Sweet; #Nine;
Follow You Anywhere; If You Wanna Get to Heaven;
Sweet Gypsy Woman; Misunderstanding; L.A.; Serious
Shoes; She Do for Me.

Line-up: Young-Wilson-Emerson-Irving-Mulford-Tong-Lenni

Personnel Changes: Out: John Stimpson
 In: Des Tong : Bass

Notes: Ashley Mulford's personal and domestic circumstances would mean that he would only play on half of this album (tracks 1, 3, 4, 8, 10). He would be subbed on most of the rest of the album by Alan Hodge or Mike Hehir. When Ashley declined to join the subsequent tour, he would be replaced by Mike Hehir who became a member of the band. Intriguingly, the picture sleeve for the first single from the album features a four-piece Sad Café (Young, Wilson, Irving & Emerson) which suggests that the newer members (Tong, Lenni & Hehir) were on a different contractual footing from the mainstays. This would characterise the remainder of the band's tenure.

New CD releases:

UK: None

U.S. : Renaissance RMED-285
Remastered sound. Includes bonus track "Rat Race"

Japan: Airmail Archive AIRAC-1611

Politics of Existing

Originally released: 1985. UK: Legacy Café LP1.
U.S.: Atlantic 81649
CD: 1992 (UK). Castle Communications CLACD
272 with subsequent re-releases

Track Listing: I Didn't Want You; Midnite; Tryin' to Reach You; Saving Grace;
Clocks; Refugees; Only Love; Keep us Together; Heart; China Seize.

"Heart" is a remixed version of the 1984 single "Why Do You Love Me Like You Do"

"Keep us Together" is the 7" version of the 1983 single

"Refugees" is the 7" version of the 1985 single.

All tracks except "Heart" and Keep us Together" were recorded in 1985

Line-up:

1983-84: Young-Wilson-Emerson-Irving-Hehir-Tong-Lenni

1985: Young-Wilson-Tong-Seopardi

Personnel Changes:

Tracks recorded in 1983-1984

OUT: Ashley Mulford (left in 1981)

IN: Mike Hehir.

Tracks recorded in 1985

OUT: Dave Irving, Vic Emerson, Lenni, Mike Hehir

IN: Jeff Seopardi: Drums, programming

Guest musicians including Mike Rutherford (guitars), Paul Carrack (backing vocals), Danny Schogger (keyboards), Mel Collins (sax) and Nico Ramsden (lead guitar) filled out the remainder of the tracks for the 1985 recordings.

Note: By the time of the 1986 tour, the line-up had changed again.

Ashley Mulford returned on lead guitar. Phil Lanzon was the new regular keyboard player. Lenni returned on sax.

Mike Hehir guested on 2nd lead guitar for part of the show at Manchester
Apollo prior to returning the group. Paul Young had begun to work with Mike and the Mechanics and Ashley Mulford also joined the group for a brief period of live performances in the U.S. and Canada.

Whatever it Takes

Originally Released: 1989 UK: LLP 1199
CD: 1989 (UK). Legacy LLCD 119 and subsequent re-releases.

Track Listing: Whatever it Takes; So Cold; This Heart's on Fire; Take Me (Heart and Soul); Stay with Me Tonight; Blood on the Sand; Don't Give Up on Love; Universe; Don't Walk Out on Me; Back to Zero.

Note: On subsequent releases "Don't Walk Out on Me" is erroneously re-titled "I Won't Leave" but this is the same song, same edit.

Take Me (Heart and Soul) was re-worked for the 1989 single. This is a different, earlier version.

The Japanese release (Legacy 25DN-72) has totally different artwork but is essentially the same album.

Line-up: Young-Wilson-Tong-Lenni-Hehir with Pigott and Burgess

Personnel changes: OUT: Ashley Mulford, Jeff Seopardi, Phil Lanzon.
 IN: Mike Hehir: Guitars (again!)
 Steve Pigott: Keyboards
 Paul Burgess: Drums

Guest musicians included Alistair Gordon (backing vocals) who later sang lead with Tony Banks' band "Bankstatement".

Commercially released video / important promo releases

Video

Sad Café were featured in several major TV broadcasts. These included a recording of their appearance at Glastonbury which was broadcast late at night on ITV. ITV also broadcast a show from their Facades tour in their "Rock Stage" show in 1980. The band also appeared many times on BBC's Top of the Pops. They performed "Everyday Hurts", "Strange Little Girl", "My Oh My", "La-Di-Da" and "I'm in Love Again" on that show. Unfortunately, none of these have ever appeared on commercially released VHS or DVD. Some of these performances have circulated on fan DVD compilations and can also be seen on youtube.

However, one live show which frequently was shown on ITV in the early – mid 1980s was given a commercial release. It was recorded at the Victoria Theatre, London and released as an "Evening with Sad Café" on VHS cassette. The video packaging didn't give a track listing. It actually featured:

On with the Show / Emptiness / Babylon / Shellshock /
I Believe (Love Will Survive) / Hungry Eyes / Flingus' Holiday /
Here Come the Clowns / Immortal / Time is so Hard to Find /
Black Rose / Fanx Ta-Ra / Wish This Night Would Never End /
Bell Ends

Available from Moonscene video in 1978, it is now long deleted.

Radio Shows

Sad Café were featured in session and live on BBC radio on a number of occasions. One of these performances has circulated on vinyl in promo form.

Recorded for BBC Transcription services in 1980. Catalogued CN 3602/S. Playing time is 57 mins 30 secs. and it was recorded on the Facades tour.

Track listing: On with the Show / Emptiness / Strange Little Girl / Hungry Eyes / Restless / Everyday Hurts / Take Me to the Future / Immortal / Feel Like Dying / My Oh My / Black Rose.

The “Paul Young - Chronicles” project

In 2010 Alistair Gordon, Pat Young and Darren Hirst began to assemble recordings that Paul Young had begun to work upon but which he had been unable to complete.

Darren proposed that the members of Sad Café should be used to complete the recordings along with friends of Paul's. Pat gave permission for Paul's existing vocals to be used and Alistair agreed to produce, working at Martin Kronlund's studio in Gothenburg, Sweden.

The following musicians were used:

(From classic Sad Café line-ups)

Dave Irving - drums
Des Tong - bass
Victor Emerson - keyboards
Ian Wilson - acoustic guitar, vocals
Michael Byron-Hehir - guitars
Ashley Mulford - guitars
Lenni - sax

(Other musicians)

Alistair Gordon - keyboards, vocals (Bankstatement, Radio Silence, Sad Cafe)
Paul Carrack - vocals, keyboards (Mike & the Mechanics, Ace, Squeeze)
Eric Stewart - guitars, keyboards (10cc)
Mike Rutherford - guitars (Genesis, Mike & the Mechanics)
Graham Gouldman - guitars, bass, vocals (10cc)

And:

Sue Quin, Martin Kronlund, Carl Davis, Steve Butler, Steve Menzies, Steve Pigott, Per Aronson, Mark Menzies.

Track listing: House of Many Nations; Your Shoes; Grace of God; Loss of Innocence; Frozen Heart; Two Wrongs; Water Now The Seed; Here Comes the Future; Everything: One Heart; We Did Nothing Wrong; I'm In Heaven Again.

Bonus track: Everyday Hurts (Live, acoustic) by Mike and the Mechanics

Old Grey Whistle Test

In 2011, the BBC got together with Rhino records to release a compilation "The Old Grey Whistle Test - 40th Anniversary Album". This included 2 cds of regular recordings by artists who were associated with the programme and 1 cd of recordings that were made specially for the programme, live performances that had not otherwise been released. Amongst the tracks on this 3rd disc was:

Track 9: Hungry Eyes by Sad Café (performed for the programme in 1978)

Live Reunion 2012-2013

Sad Café reunited in 2012 for two series of concerts with the following line-up:

Ian Wilson: vocals, guitars
Des Tong: bass
Dave Irving: drums
Ashley Mulford: vocals, lead guitar
Steve Whalley: vocals, guitar
Sue Quin: vocals, keyboards
Simon Waggott - keyboards

The band made one release from this tour:

Sad Cafe - November 2012

(Private release from sadcafe.co.uk)

Track listing:

1. On With The Show
2. Hungry Eyes
3. Misunderstanding

2014 - 2015.

The band are currently awaiting the release of a DVD and CD from their 1980 Facades tour which was recorded at the Nottingham gig and will be released in the Spring on Demon Records.

They are considering new live dates in 2015.
